

Introduction

Our next speaker got his start in the business world at a very early age. He started his first business at the tender age of 9 and he had successfully started and sold more than 12 businesses before turning 21.

At the age of 15, his internet company was generating close to $15,000 per day in revenue and he was asked to become the youngest person to serve on the board of a Japanese based company.

He is media-savvy and he, and his various businesses, have been featured in Newsweek, BusinessWeek, The New York Times, The Chicago Tribune, Time Magazine, CNBC, ABC, MSNBC, and more than 250 other media outlets worldwide. He has been hired by Fortune 500 Companies and he was the subject of a best-selling biography book in Japan in 2000.

His new book titled You Call the Shots: Succeed your Way – And Live the Life You Want – With the 19 Essential Secrets of Entrepreneurship was released in 2007 by Simon & Schuster and is available in stores worldwide. He has had some amazing success and is here to share his story.

Please welcome, from Roanoke, Virginia, Cameron Johnson.
